VII. Old Business

Federal Inmate Contract. Carter County Sheriff Dexter Lunceford stated that the contract was forwarded to full commission.

Recognition of Officers Andy Bean and Robert Hughes. Carter County Sheriff Dexter Lunceford mentioned that Carnegie Foundation wanted to recognize the two officers for what they did. The officers expressed their appreciation but refused the recommendation. Randall Jenkins requested the sheriff to relay it to the officers if they will accept the plaques of recognition and that is without the ceremony. Since this was already agreed upon during the October committee meeting.

VIII. New Business

None

IX. Announcement

John D. Snyder, the Chairman of the Civil Service Board, informed the committee that they never had a permanent office since its inception in 1974. Recently, they found an accommodation to a small office in Arney Hill.

Chairman Snyder stated that the Board had a history of economizing on their expenses. Since it is the first time that they finally got an office space, he mentioned that they need proper office equipment that the county can provide them. The need for a photocopier is exigent, and it will be convenient for the Board to copy exams every time they conduct them.

X. Adjournment

Adjournment was called by Isaiah Grindstaff and seconded by Nancy Brown. Adjournment was unanimously approved. Meeting was adjourned.
