- Superintendent's Report: Superintendent Ward stated their budget had been cut this year in the amount of 1.3 million dollars. He stated professional positions, teachers and assistant principals had to be cut in order to come up with the money needed to fill that gap. He discussed BEP funding and stated he was preparing a BEP worksheet to present to the School Board next month and would then share it with the the Education Committee. The new voucher system was briefly discussed and the fact it did not effect our county as yet but most likely would in the future.
- Comments: None

Chairwoman McKamey recognized School Board Members Danny Ward and Keith Bowers in the audience.
