VI. New Business

Election Commission Boundary – The Election Commission is requesting that the boundaries be moved at all polling places from 100 feet to 300 feet because of the difficulty they had during this year's election. Mr. Jenkins stated his opinion that even 200 feet wouldn't be enough room. Attorney Hardin stated that the county by private act can change boundaries, but, while the statute says you can move the boundaries the TN Attorney General has stated that it was unconstitutional. Attorney Hardin reminded the committee that it could be challenged if complaints were made. Mr. Jenkins is going to invite the election commission to send representatives to the August meeting. A motion to defer till August was made by Isaiah Grindstaff, second by Willie Campbell. Motion was unanimously approved.

VII. Announcement

The next meeting will be held on August 7, 2018 at 6:00 P.M.

Mr. Johnson wanted to clarify "Public Comment" on the committee meeting agendas. Is this portion of the agenda open to committee member or other elected official to speak? Agreement was that this is for the non-elected public citizen only to speak.

VIII. Adjournment

Motion to adjourn was made by Isaiah Grindstaff, second by Tim Holdren. Motion unanimously approved. Meeting adjourned at 8:20 P.M.
